"When Women Love." "When Women Love" is such sweet reminiscence to us all, that the play of that title which Messrs. Spitz and Nason present is placed on a pinnacle by itself and insures to the public one of those rare gems that will live forever. The author is our own citizen, William W. Lapoint. The play is one that does not depend upon the lavish scenic display that has been provided for its presentation. It is strong, convincing and well acted.

THE THANKSGIVING TABLE.

Suggestions for Decorating the Festal Board.

Something colonial by way of decoration is always in order on Thanksgiving, says Harper's Bazar. A pretty centerpiece may be made of wheat and small artificial pumpkins, the wheat, bought at the florist's in a set piece, will need to be opened and rearranged in a small sheaf. Smaller sheaves may be set down the length of the table if it is sufficiently long, and the yellow may be still further carried out in bouquets and in the candles and shades, and the feast may be served either in little pumpkins or may be molded in that shape.

A fine card bearing the name of the guest may be tied with yellow ribbon around the neck of a small turkey and put before each cover. These turkeys, by the way, come at all prices and in every variety, from the little feathered fowl which costs but a few cents to a really artistic iridescent bronze bird which will serve as a paperweight later on.

The colonial idea may be suggested in the sherbet cups made of black paper in the form of quail hats, such as John Alden wore. A spray of what may lie under each hat with good effect.

SEARCHING FOR IT?

Some Barre Citizens Can Tell You Where It's Found

If you have any itchiness of the skin, Irritating Eczema, Itching Piles. You're looking for relief, Searching for a cure.

Barre people have found a cure for itching skin diseases.

They tell about it. Read what this citizen says.

F. S. Sandier (farmer) of West Topsham, says: "I was subject to itching hemorrhoids, commonly called piles, for a number of years despite the use of innumerable salves and ointments brought to my notice by friends and acquaintances and through the Barre newspapers and other sources of information, term it what you will, was often bad enough in the winter, but in hot weather the itching and annoyance was unendurable. I heard of Doan's Ointment and got a box at E. A. Drown's drug store in Barre. When it effectually stopped such an old and chronic case as mine, which had resisted every effort on my part to check it, let alone cure, I have often wondered what this remedy would do in the incipient stages of that far too common annoyance, piles."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.
